GENERAL ASSEMBLY 2022

POLICY ROUND TABLE

Wednesday | 26 January 2022, 14.00 – 18.00 (CET)

The role of regions in the digitalisation of rural areas

Fabio Boscaleri
Policy Advisor
Tuscany Region Brussels Office
fabio.boscaleri@regione.toscana.it

Regione Toscana

- Infrastructures
- Services
- Coordination among funds (eg. EAFRD, ERDF, R&R Plan, etc.)
- Strategies
- DIH & Technology Clusters

Funding & Programming

Regions and Local Authorities

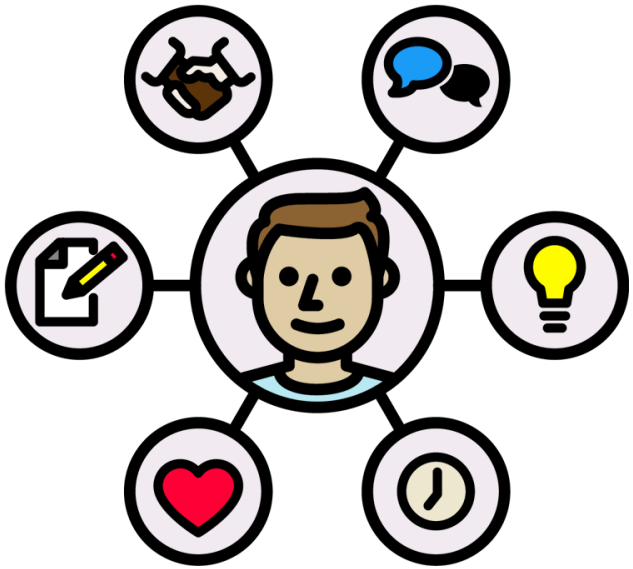
Facilitating & Promoting

Funding & Programming

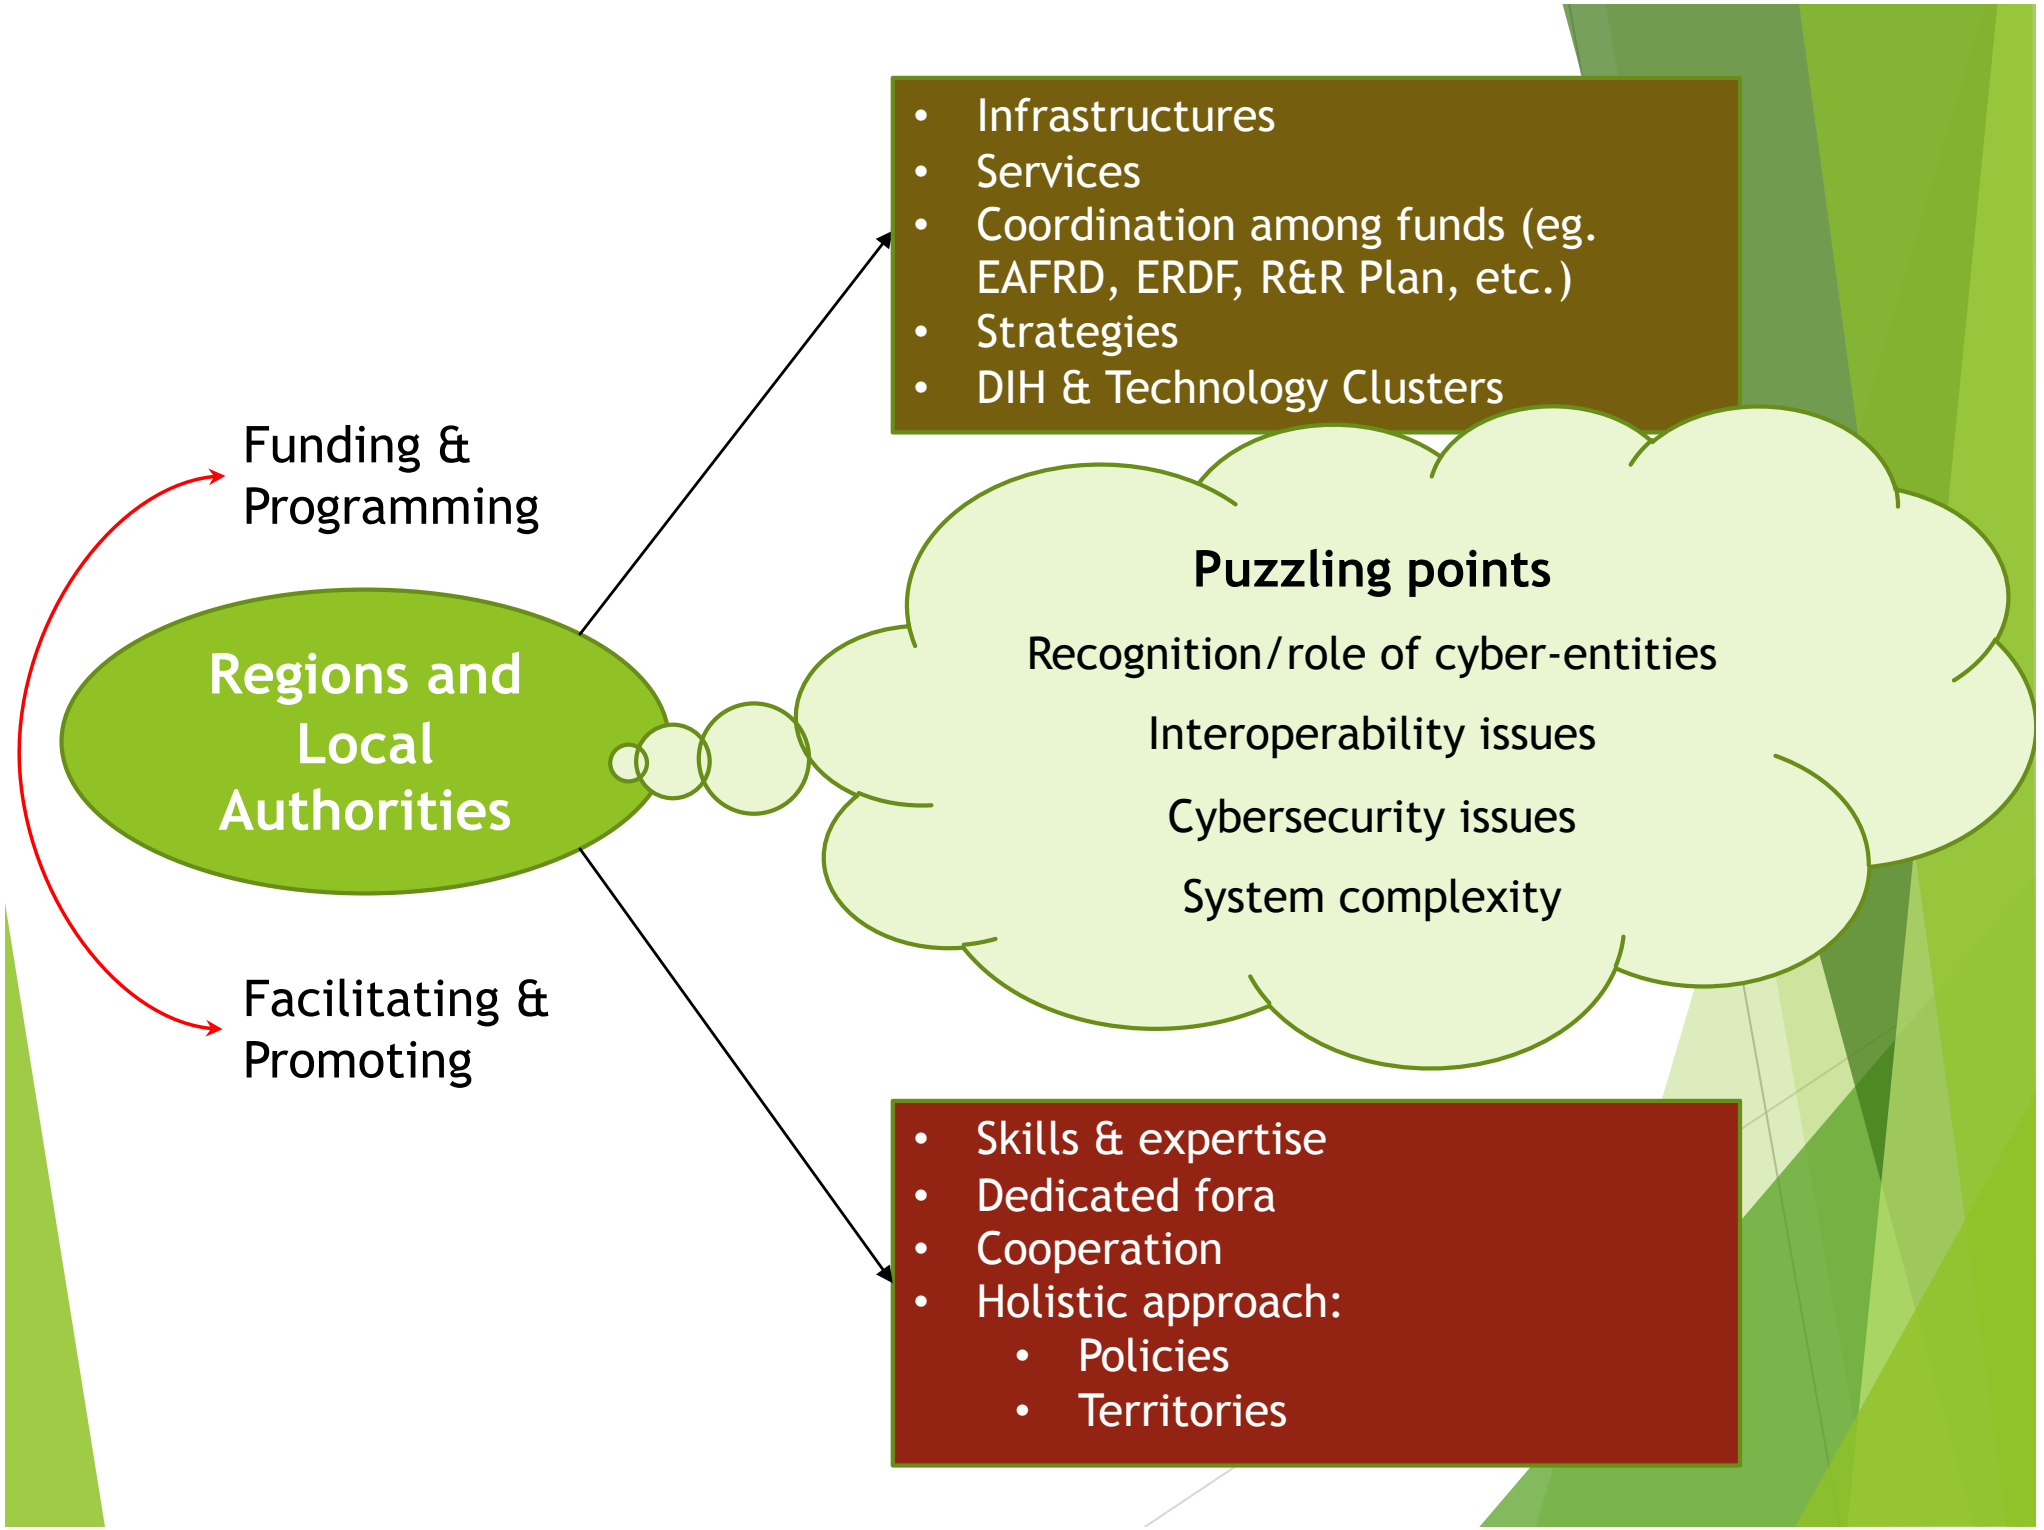
Regions and Local Authorities

Facilitating & Promoting

- Infrastructures
- Services
- Coordination among funds (eg. EAFRD, ERDF, R&R Plan, etc.)
- Strategies
- DIH & Technology Clusters



- Skills & expertise
- Dedicated fora
- Cooperation
- Holistic approach:
  - Policies
  - Territories



Funding & Programming
Regions and Local Authorities
Facilitating & Promoting
Puzzling points
Recognition/role of cyber-entities
Interoperability issues
Cybersecurity issues
System complexity
Infrastructures
Services
Coordination among funds (eg. EAFRD, ERDF, R&R Plan, etc.)
Strategies
DIH & Technology Clusters
Skills & expertise
Dedicated fora
Cooperation
Holistic approach:
Policies
Territories

"Rural areas are places where innovation can flourish, but we must nurture it and provide the right tools and a level playing field in relation to other territories"

Eugenio Giani, President of the Regional Government of Tuscany

How to harness the potential of rural areas to m ake them suitable places for innovation opportunities?
TERRITORIALL, Issue 3, June 2021

Thank you for your attention

Regione Toscana